Judge Dickey Fails TO RECOVER Overcharge Penalty

The Rapid Transit Company is not obliged by its franchise to give transfers to passengers in opposite directions from those in which they begin a trip. Judge Lyle A. Dickey is denied the penalty of $100 he sued to recover from the company for its refusal of a transfer to him from the King street line to the Liliha and Punahou line, he having traveled east on the former and asked for a transfer to travel west on the latter.

Judge De Bolt rendered a decision this morning in favor of the defendant in the action for a penalty of Lyle A. Dickey vs. Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company. The court describes the two lines operated by the defendant and quotes its rules of transfers, also the law governing fares on the railway which says:

"Upon a continuous trip, persons riding upon the cars and transferring from one car to another upon a connecting line within the limits above mentioned shall be entitled to a transfer ticket without the payment of an extra fare upon the lines of this railway."

Judge De Bolt proceeds to state the contents of both sides and his conclusions, thus:

"Plaintiff contends that the two lines are connecting lines, and, being within the limits as prescribed in said last subdivision of said section 9, i. e., being between Diamond Head and Moanalua, he was entitled to the transfer as requested by him, notwithstanding that he would thus be able to take a trip from east to west and from west to east over either line and return on the other line to his starting point, and so continue at his pleasure for one fare."

"Counsel for defendant on the other hand, contends that the two lines are entirely separate and distinct and are not connecting lines, but are parallel lines with two points in common, and that the giving of transfers as heretofore to any person riding continuously

Representatives TO RESIGN This Afternoon

The action of the Governor in vetoing the House expense bill has had more far-reaching results than it was first thought when the message was read in the House this morning.

As was reported in the Bulletin the other day, the majority of the members from the country districts are here in the interests of the people on what they get from the Legislature as salaries. When at home, they depend upon their various occupations to keep them, but when in Honolulu in attendance at the Legislature, their income stops and unless they receive at regular intervals the money due them as legislators, they cannot buy food.

The country members of the House have been waiting patiently for several days for the passage of the expense bill in the Senate and the sending of the same to the Governor for his signature. When this was finally accomplished the other day, they thought they were out of their troubles and that the money would be forthcoming on Saturday last, the day the bill went to the Governor. Instead of that, the measure was in the Governor's hands until today, when he sent it back to the House with his veto.

As a direct result of the veto, three members of the House will probably hand in their resignations this afternoon. Whether they will be accepted or not is a question but if they are, the House will be unable to sit any longer and the business of the people will be left in an unfinished state with the Loan Bill in the air and the current expense and salaries bills unfinished. It is probable, however, that the resignations will not be accepted, but this will not prevent the members concerned from returning to their homes. They state that they simply cannot stay in town any longer for they have not the money and without their pay from the Legislature, it is impossible for them to get along.

The members are J. A. Fernandez and H. M. Kanio and there is one other whose name could not be ascertained but it is thought he is a member from this island.

INSANE HAWAIIAN COMES NEAR DYING

A poor old insane Hawaiian, exhausted with fatigue and numb with cold, was this forenoon found lying on the path road above Luakaha by Montague Cooke. Mr. Cooke took the poor old fellow into his rig and brought him to the police station. When he arrived there the old man, whose name is Pele, was almost dead with cold and from being drenched with the heavy rain to which he must have been exposed. He could not talk and seemed to be unable to use his limbs to any extent. The police did all in their power to resuscitate the old man. He was given liberal doses of whiskey and a hot bath, after which he was rolled in hot blankets and vigorously lomi-lomi'd by three trustees. The prompt treatment seemed to make the old man feel considerably better. He is at present at the police station.

Upon inquiry at the insane asylum it was ascertained that the old man's

SENATE.

Extra Session.

Twenty-fourth Day.

Immediately after the opening of the House bill appropriating $7000 for unpaid bills of the House of Representatives for the regular session of the Legislature was read a second time.

Senator Baldwin moved the bill be referred to the Public Expenditures committee.

Senator J. T. Brown moved that the bill pass. What was the use of delay? If the Senate held up the bill the House might take umbrage and adjourn.

Senator Baldwin said his idea was not to dispute the bill, but they ought to know of what it was composed. If he understood the Governor and the Attorney General, this should be an itemized bill. How was the amount made an even $7000? Could it be the unpaid bills of the House footed up this even amount?

Senator J. T. Brown contended it was improper to inquire into the expenses of the House.

Senator Achi, who had seconded the motion to commit the bill, argued that the money could not be paid if appropriated in a lump sum not itemized. The Governor might veto the bill and if it passed in spite of him the payment of accounts under it might be stopped at the Treasury.

Senator Baldwin argued that what was wanted was a constitutional bill.

Governor Heard From.
President Crabbe, a message from the Governor having previously been announced, stated that if the Senate would suspend the discussion a message from the Governor would be read which would probably clear up the matter.

The message was read as follows:
"A Message to the Legislature of Hawaii."

"I am unable to approve of a Bill entitled 'An Act to appropriate money for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Extra Session of the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii of the Year 1903, from the Public Treasury,' received from the Legislature on May 26th, and return the same herewith without my signature."

"My objections to this Bill are as follows:

"Section 1 of the act appropriates money for defraying the expenses of the Extra Session of the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii of the Year 1903."

"While the Senate may sit in special session, an extra or special session of the House is unknown to the law."

"SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor."

(Executive Chamber, Territory of Hawaii, May 27th, 1903.)

Senator Isenberg moved that the Governor's veto be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator J. T. Brown withdrew his motion to pass the bill.
Senator Achi moved in amendment that the Judiciary Committee confer with the corresponding committee of the House.

The amendment was accepted and the motion carried as amended.

Senator Isenberg moved that the bill also be referred to the Judiciary Committee. This carried when Senator Baldwin had withdrawn his motion to refer the bill to the Public Expenditures Committee.

Board of Pharmacy.

The following message from the Governor was read:

"A Message to the Senate of the Territory of Hawaii:

"In accordance with the provisions of Act 70 of the Session Laws of 1903, entitled 'An Act to Regulate the Practice of Pharmacy and the Selling, Compounding and Dispensing of Drugs, Chemicals and Poisons in the Territory of Hawaii,' I hereby submit for your consideration and action the following nominations:

"Board of Pharmacy—Mr. R. B. Reedy, Doctor W. E. Taylor, Mr. Samuel S. Peck
"SANFORD B. DOLE,
Governor."

"Executive Chamber, Territory of Hawaii, May 27th, 1903."

Senator Baldwin moved the appointments be confirmed by the Senate, as he believed that they were all good men. Carried unanimously on show of hands.

Recess.

Senator McCandless moved the Senate take recess till 2 o'clock this afternoon. The condition of things now was that the House was in a bad fix. Although not in favor of giving the House all that it wanted, he thought it ought to have money for its expenses.

Senator Isenberg favored adjourning till 10 o'clock tomorrow, saying Senator Cecil Brown was one of the most important members of the Judiciary Committee and he was absent.

President Crabbe stated that Senator Brown would attend at a minute's notice if telephoned for.

Recess was taken at 10:25 till 2 p. m. today.

E. M. Cheatham and his bride, nee Miss Sheldhamer, will, when they return from their honeymoon trip at Waialua tomorrow, receive a pleasant surprise in the form of a fine solid silver table service of thirty pieces, the gift of the custom house force, on which the bridegroom is employed.

HOUSE.

Extra Session.

Twenty-fourth Day.

A message from Secretary Carter announced the signing by the Governor of the Senate expense bill.

The following communication from High Sheriff Brown was read:

"I beg to call your attention, and to the attention of the honorable members of the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii, that but $1,200 has been appropriated in the Emergency Bill for civil and criminal incidents of the Attorney General's Department."

"This amount is entirely insufficient to meet the incidental expenses of this department for the remaining portion of this present period. The unpaid bills against this appropriation for the month of April amount to $1,008.23, and it is safe to presume that the bills for May will equal, if not exceed, this amount."

"I would therefore respectfully suggest that an item of $1,800 be appropriated for unpaid bills of this department. This amount, together with the $1,200 passed in the Emergency Bill, would make up the amount of $3,000, asked for by the Attorney General to be inserted in the Emergency Bill."

The message from the Governor as presented in the Senate was read, and ordered spread on the Journal. Mr. Paele at once moved to override the veto of the Governor and was seconded by Mr. Kupihea. Mr. Harris stated that the best thing to do under the circumstances was to frame a new bill. The House should proceed according to law and the title of the bill was clearly contrary to the Organic Act.

Mr. Paele renewed his motion to override, saying that after this was done, the House could await the action of the Senate. If that body refused to side with the House, then the work of the people would have to be left and the members return to their homes, for there was no money to pay expenses.

Mr. Chillingworth said the House should go very slow in the matter and proceed according to law. If the House should override the veto of the Governor, the Treasurer, finding the measure to be contrary to the Organic Act, might refuse to pay warrants under it and then the House would be in a worse mess than before. The only proper course to pursue was to frame a new bill.

Speaker Beckley stated from the
